okayplayer - "If you're still sleeping on Klassik, wake that a up."

MischkaNYC - "The aesthetic and the concept of these is what grabbed my attention but the music and the output is what kept me coming back for more."

Huff Post - "This makes Klassik not only a skillful producer, keyboardist, guitarist and lyricist, but also a marketing genius, all of which equate to him being the next big thing in hip-hop."

The Source - "Some individuals are just born to perform and there's no question that Klassik, a Milwaukee native, should definitely be included in that list."

ABOUT KLASSIK

iamklassik.com | #keepitklassik | @iamklassik

Klassik is truly an old soul. His fusion of Hip-Hop and Jazz, amongst many other genres, pays homage to the many legends of generations past. His music is not based around braggadocio or glorification of the world's ills, but rather portrays a positive, forward thinking person, fueled by his inspiration to constantly create and innovate. His diverse influences including Stevie Wonder, John Coltrane, Kanye West, Pharrell Williams, and Steely Dan, have helped mold a blend of musical styles that comes out one hundred percent unique, fresh, and timeless.
